

Brazil's Perspectives on Decarbonizing Transport

Martha Martorelli

Planning Manager

National Secretary of Urban Mobility

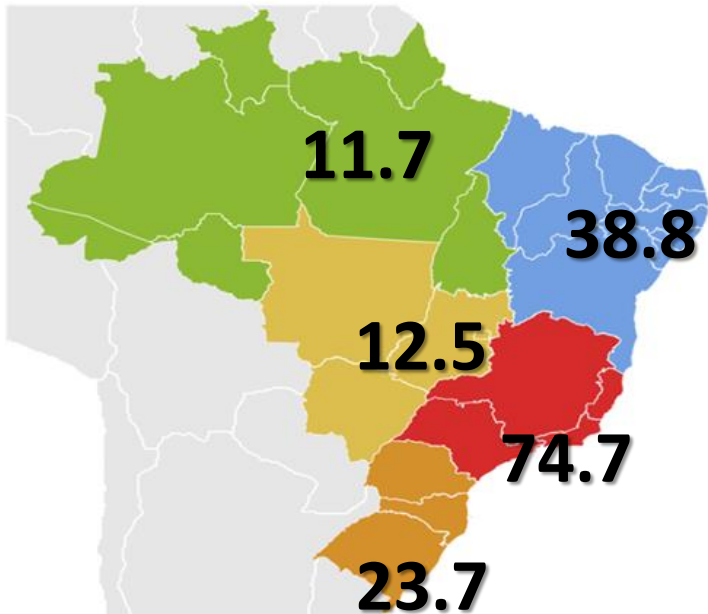

Ministry of the Cities - Brazil

Transport and Climate Change Week Focus 2017: Urban Mobility

18 - 22 September 2017

Brazil's Perspectives on Decarbonizing Transport

210,000,000 people

*Million people

- 85 % - Urban population
- Framework:
 - ✓ Union
 - ✓ Federal District
 - ✓ States (26)
 - ✓ Municipalities (5,570)
- > 50% living in 27 metropolitan zones

Regulatory Framework

- Federal Constitution of Brasil - 1988
- Statute of the City - 2001
- National Urban Mobility Policy - 2012
- Sectorial Transport and Urban Mobility Policy - 2013
- Statute of the Metrópole - 2015
- National Adaptation Plan - 2016

National Urban Mobility Policy

- Ministry of the Cities - 2003
- Primary focus:
- transport X citizen
- Participation of civil society
- Important legal provision
 - ✓ Equality
 - ✓ Democratic management and participation of society
 - ✓ Quality of services provided
 - ✓ Environmental sustainability

National Urban Mobility Policy

- Principles, guidelines and goals
- Tariff policy
- Rights of the users system
- Federal entities responsibilities
- Demand management instruments
- Urban mobility plans

ANTP 2013

Actions for implementation of the Urban Mobility Policy

- Training and technical assistance for municipalities
- National information system on Urban Mobility(SIMU)
- Intersectorial groups
- “Avançar Cidades” funding program
- Cooperation agreements

THANKS!!

Martha Martorelli

Planning Manager

National Secretary of Urban Mobility

Ministry of the Cities - Brasil

martha.martorelli@cidades.gov.br

MINISTÉRIO DAS
CIDADES

